

We have fought long and hard for a do not call program. We are sick to death of the constant telemarketing calls each and every day. We demand that you implement this do not call list and make it permanent. This imposition is ridiculous. Telemarketing calls come in 7 days a week from early morning to late evening. Enough is enough.